As a bartender, this shot is one of the most important mixes you can master.

Neat or Straight Up: If a guest orders this kind of angel shot drink, they want an employee to walk them to their car.

On Ice or On the Rocks: When a customer asks for this kind of angel drink, they want a staff member to call a rideshare or taxi.

With Lemon/Lime or With a Twist: In this case, the guest feels like they're in imminent danger and they want an employee to call the police.
